

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place. ² Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting. ³ They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. ⁴ All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues^[a] as the Spirit enabled them.

⁵ Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. ⁶ When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard their own language being spoken. ⁷ Utterly amazed, they asked: “Aren’t all these who are speaking Galileans? ⁸ Then how is it that each of us hears them in our native language? ⁹ Parthians, Medes and Elamites; residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia,^[b] ¹⁰ Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; visitors from Rome ¹¹ (both Jews and converts to Judaism); Cretans and Arabs—we hear them declaring the wonders of God in our own tongues!” ¹² Amazed and perplexed, they asked one another, “What does this mean?”

¹³ Some, however, made fun of them and said, “They have had too much wine.”

LIFE GROUP DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Based on Acts 2:1-13

For the week of February 5

Spirit Enables Us to Declare God's Goodness Locally and Globally

GETTING STARTED

1. If you could speak another language fluently, which would it be and why?

What is the most unforgettable event you have ever been a part of?

SERMON OVERVIEW

Think back to the sermon. Was there an idea or expression that spoke to you, or was there anything said that challenged or confused you?

DIGGING IN

Take turns reading a couple of verses each from Acts 2:1-13

4. In Acts 2:1-4, Who and why were gathered together? What happened to them?

5. In Acts 2:1-4, Luke describes three symbols associated with the arrival of the Holy Spirit. What are they, and why are they significant?

6. In Acts 2:5-13. Why would Luke mention the people groups that were present?

7. With the gift of the Holy Spirit, the disciples were transformed from withdrawn and scared men into brave and proclaiming witnesses. What does this tell us about the power of the Holy Spirit? What is the implication for our situations and prayers?

8. Do you feel responsible for sharing the story of what Jesus has done in your life with those who don't yet know Him, especially with the next generation? Why or why not?

What fears do you have about sharing your faith with others?

APPLYING IT

10. Is there an area in your life where you think or know the Holy Spirit has been pushing, prompting, or motivating you to do something? If so, how does it relate to your mission to be Jesus' witness?

What is one way this week you could intentionally build a relationship with non-believers to learn about their story and help guide them toward a deeper relationship with Jesus?
