

WELCOME TO

Luke 23:44-49

The Death of Jesus

⁴⁴ It was now about noon, and darkness came over the whole land until three in the afternoon, ⁴⁵ for the sun stopped shining. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. ⁴⁶ Jesus called out with a loud voice, “Father, into your hands I commit my spirit.” When he had said this, he breathed his last.

⁴⁷ The centurion, seeing what had happened, praised God and said, “Surely this was a righteous man.” ⁴⁸ When all the people who had gathered to witness this sight saw what took place, they beat their breasts and went away. ⁴⁹ But all those who knew him, including the women who had followed him from Galilee, stood at a distance, watching these things.

For the week of March 24 - 30

GETTING STARTED

1. What experiences have caused you to be amazed?

SERMON OVERVIEW

2. Think back to the sermon. Was there an idea or expression that spoke to you, or was there anything said that challenged or confused you?

DIGGING IN

Read Luke 23:44-49

3. What stands out to you from this passage?
4. Why do you think the curtain in the temple was significant, and what do you believe its purpose was in the context of Jewish religious practices and beliefs?
5. In what ways does the scene of Jesus' crucifixion challenge your understanding of who Jesus is and what his death means for you?
6. How does the response of the people, including those who knew Jesus, contrast with the actions of the centurion and the women who had followed Jesus from Galilee, as described in verse 49?
7. In what ways do you see Jesus opening the path between humanity and God through his death on the cross, and how does this impact your understanding of your relationship with God?

APPLYING IT

8. How does this passage motivate you to have gospel conversations with others?
9. As we enter Holy Week, what do you need to surrender into the Father's hands?
